NOTICE REGARDING POTENTIAL FLOOD CONDITIONS

The National Weather Service in Albuquerque has issued a Special Weather Statement advising that there will be rapid snowmelt leading to excessive runoff in the mountains of Northern New Mexico, including Mora County. These conditions are expected to be in effect through Monday, April 17, 2023, at 9:00 a.m.

Please be aware that the National Weather Service recommends the following:

1. Exercise extreme caution near cold fast flowing water.
2. Do NOT drive through flooded roadways.
3. Be wary of rock and mudslides in steep locations.

Mora County personnel are closely monitoring the situation and are working with state and federal officials to coordinate a response to protect the life, welfare and property of residents and visitors in the county. Further updates will be provided as additional information becomes available.

In the event of an emergency, please call 911.
