Notice of Possible Quorum for Work Session

The Mora County Commission will be conducting a Work Session in order to inform applicants for the County Manager position of key issues involving the operations of Mora County. This will include reports from elected officials, department heads, and others.

This Work Session is scheduled for October 30, 2023, at 2:30 p.m. The topics to be discussed with the County Commission and Mora County Staff and representatives include: (1) discussion of County operations and wildfire recovery, including updates by elected officials, department heads, and others (2) discussion regarding budget and budget adjustments which may be needed due to unforeseen expenses, and (3) any other pertinent matters regarding Mora County.

A quorum of the Mora County Commission may be present at this work session; however, no decisions will be made, and no actions will be taken by members of the County Commission who may be in attendance at this meeting.

Further, this meeting will be for informational purposes only to better inform the County Manager applicants of the operations of Mora County.
