2. Roll Call:
Commissioner George A. Trujillo – absent
Commissioner John H. Trujillo – present
Commissioner Veronica M. Serna – present
Two of the three members were present and a quorum was met.

3. Pledge of Allegiance and Salute to the State Flag of New Mexico:
Commissioner John Trujillo led the board and staff in the pledge and salute.

4. Approval of Agenda:
County Manager Joseph Garcia recommended the board approve the Agenda as presented.
Commissioner Veronica Serna made the motion to approve as presented on the recommendation of the County Manager.
Commissioner John Trujillo seconded the motion.
All in favor, motion carried.

5. Discussion/Action – 2024 Primary Election Review of Election Totals:
Deputy Clerk Vivian Trujillo went over the totals of two precincts, (Absentee & David Cargo Library), tally sheet and the final total percentage of voter turnout. She proceeded to read the total off the tabulator tape from the voting machine of those two precincts and off the unofficial tally sheet. She stated it was a low 28% voter turnout for the County of Mora. She went over the one provisional ballot that did not meet the standard requirement to qualify to be counted.

She then requested the Board to accept the total number and sign the Certification of County Canvass for the Primary Election 2024.

County Manager Mr. Garcia recommended the board approve the final total and sign the certificate.

Commissioner Veronica Serna made the motion to approve the final tally numbers.
Commissioner John Trujillo seconded the motion.
All in favor, motion carried.

6. Adjournment:
Commissioner Veronica Serna made the motion to adjourn at 4:16 p.m.

Commissioner John H. Trujillo seconded the motion.
All in favor, motion carried.
